

Drayton Richdale Corp. Acquires Matlink Inc., an Application Service Provider - ASP - in the Multi-Billion Dollar Construction Industry

April 20, 2004 09:00:00 AM ET

Drayton Richdale Corp. (OTC:DRYT) acquired 100% of all the outstanding shares of Matlink Inc., a privately held Nevada company with headquarters in Temecula, valued at $18 million. Matlink Inc. is an emerging application service provider (ASP) in the multi-billion dollar construction industry. Matlink's assets include intellectual property in the form of a proprietary business method application known as a "Materials and Supplies Ordering System" (MSOS), U.S. Patent Number 6,134,557. This "Business Method Patent" discloses and claims an application for ordering construction materials and supplies via several methods, including, but not limited to, the Internet. Drayton Richdale will obtain a legal opinion regarding the enforceability of the claims made in the MSOS patent against infringing parties. Findings will be announced upon review of this legal opinion.

Concurrently, Drayton Richdale Corp. appointed new directors and officers. The new directors are Joseph E. Henn, Stephen A. Lindsley, Antonio Arnel Maquera and Nives E. Jadresko. The new officers are Joseph E. Henn, president, and Christy Stevenson, secretary.
